

MARCUS F. SAWTELLE
General Contractor
Office & Carpenter Shop
211 West Gold
Native Brick for Sale.

with the Dayton case and I was not aware that you even knew I had taken action.
—ENRICO

THEODORE ROOSEVELT.
Dr. Dayton said he had filed with the house committee affidavits from every man mentioned in the impeachment charges and that part of the court record would be submitted in the defense.

LOUDON'S
PURE ICE CREAM
511 E. Central Phone 507

BEWARE
of Cheap Soda
DON'T

Let your children drink something you will not drink yourself.

It costs money to make good goods.

We have no cheap goods to offer.

Insist on Sodas and Mineral Water bottled by The Coyote Springs Mineral Water Co.

Our Motto Is "We Make Pop—Not Slop."

We are

The Coyote Co.
F. H. PERRY, Mgr.

Phone 727
323 NORTH FIRST ST.

and in the evening they came across a path constructed by United States forest rangers. They camped on the trail and early today arrived at the ranger station. Neither is in a serious condition.

They were forced to land on the slope of Taos mountain on account of being unable to pass over its peak. They hit a clearing, but the balloon dragged along the jagged rocks and was badly torn.

Members of the Portland Rose festival also committee, which conducted the race under the auspices of the Aero Club of America, were elated over the escape from death of Donald and Henderson.

Every one of the four balloons in the race—Uncle Sam, Million Population Club, Kansas City III and Springfield—met with disaster and their pilots and aides narrowly escaped with their lives.

JUDGE DAYTON HAS LETTER FROM COLONEL TO PUT HIM IN CLEAR

(By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.)
Grafton, W. Va., June 17.—Marking public a letter written by Colonel Theodore Roosevelt to his father, Judge A. G. Dayton, of the United States district court, Arthur Dayton, Jr., outlined the defense. Judge Dayton will make against the charge of Representative M. M. Neely of West Virginia in the house that he was guilty of "high crimes and misdemeanors."

The letter, written in New York, May 29, 1914, just before Colonel Roosevelt sailed for Europe, follows:

"It is a matter of the simplest justice to you to say that I appointed you wholly without solicitation because as a congressman I had learned to respect and admire you. At that time I had directed that an investigation of Judge Jackson's conduct be made by the department of justice.

"Whenever I disagreed with you in any given cause I could always count on your action with really lofty disinterestedness of purpose and a desire to follow the dictates of your own conscience."

You had nothing whatever to do

Pre-Inventory
on all

Refrigerators

We are closing out our Refrigerators, and selling them at cost. Now is the time to buy.

Call and look them over.

Strong Bros.
2ND AND COPPER

TODAY'S GAMES

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 17.

NATIONAL LEAGUE

Chicago, 3; Boston, 8.
Morning game. R. H. E.
Chicago . . . . . 611 601 609—3 8 2
Boston . . . . . 202 202 202—5 9 1
Batteries: Zabel, Humphries and Hargrove; Tyler and Whaling.

Pirates, 9; Giants, 5.
H. H. E.
Pittsburgh . . . . . 608 608 608—6 5 2
New York . . . . . 109 102 203—9 1 1
Batteries: McQuillen and Gibson; Mathewson and Meyers.

Chicago, 3; Boston, 7.
Second game. R. H. E.
Chicago . . . . . 608 608 102—3 7 2
Boston . . . . . 508 508 508—7 11 6
Batteries: Pierce, Smith and Bresnan; James and Whaling.

Reds, 1; Dodgers, 2.
H. H. E.
Cincinnati . . . . . 608 608 616—1 3 2
Brooklyn . . . . . 608 608 101—2 5 1
Batteries: Douglass, Clark and Gonzalez; Pfeffer and Fischer.

Cardinals, 1; Phillies, 5.
Score: R. H. E.
St. Louis . . . . . 602 600 602 0—1 9 1
Philadelphia . . . . . 109 601 611 4—5 16 2
Batteries: Doak, Griner, Salles and Snyder; Alexander, Mayer and Killier, Burns.

AMERICAN LEAGUE

Yankees, 4; Tigers, 3.
R. H. E.
New York . . . . . 220 600 600—4 8 2
Detroit . . . . . 616 600 611—3 12 3
Batteries: McHale, Caldwell and Numamaker; Cave, Hall, Main and Stansage.

Boston, 9; St. Louis, 4.
H. H. E.
Boston . . . . . 608 608 608—4 4 0
St. Louis . . . . . 620 602 608—4 10 1
Batteries: Johnson and Cady; Hamilton and Agnew.

Senators, 2; Naps, 7.
H. H. E.
Washington . . . . . 108 100 600—2 9 1
Cleveland . . . . . 610 622 626—2 12 2
Batteries: Shaw and Almuth; Collomare and O'Neill.

Athletics, 9; White Sox, 5.
H. H. E.
Philadelphia . . . . . 608 608 608—0 1 6
Chicago . . . . . 601 210 618—5 9 2
Batteries: Brown, Bressler and Lapp; Faber and Schalks.

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION

Cleveland, 4; St. Paul, 3.
Score: R. H. E.
Cleveland . . . . . 200 100 601—4 19 1
St. Paul . . . . . 100 600 600—3 15 5
Batteries: Lush, Kahler and Dekog-Hopper; Walker and Glenn.

Indianapolis, 6; Milwaukee, 10.
H. H. E.
Indianapolis . . . . . 620 640 600—6 5 1
Milwaukee . . . . . 310 290 100—16 16 1
Batteries: Schardt, Adams and Livingston; Hovik and Hughes.

224,000 CASES OF BELEIDIGUNG IN A YEAR

Germany's Favorite Crime Is Rapidly on the Increase: Some Instances and the Punishments.

Berlin, June 17.—Insult, or Belidigung, as it is termed in Germany, is easily the most popular crime in the Fatherland. This is strikingly shown by statistics of such cases for 1913, just issued. The report is that of the so-called Schiedsrichter, the official peacemakers before whom such cases must be brought in an effort to effect a compromise before recourse to the courts is had. The report shows a total of more than 224,000 cases for the year.

Thousands of these cases were undoubtedly due to most trivial causes. Newspaper reports of insult proceedings show cases like the following:

Man fined because, as a policeman in citizen's clothing declared himself to be an officer the culprit replied: "You look like it."

Woman, wife of a striker, imprisoned because, as a group of strikebreakers was passing, she "spat contemptuously."

Striker fined for saying "Few" as strikebreakers were passing.

Police lieutenant fined for saying to a young man in the station house: "Keep still, green youth."

Socialist fined for sending Socialist campaign literature to a Prussian policeman.

Landrat (a local official of great power in Prussia), fined for insulting a young magistrate by declaring that he would not give him testimony to such a youth."

Socialist editor fined for insulting the public authorities by referring to a man—time convicted pander and petty thief as "the crown witness" in addition to the fact that a brother editor had been convicted in another case upon this man's testimony.

Three Essentials

In placing your money at Interest you should always bear in mind the three great essentials of safety, interest rate and efficient service.

This bank affords absolute safety; the interest rate it pays is the highest consistent with this safety and it renders to every depositor the most efficient service regardless of whether the account is a few dollars or several hundreds $1.00 is enough to open an account at 4 per cent interest, compounded twice a year.

FIRST SAVINGS BANK & TRUST COMPANY

Capital and Surplus over $300,000.00.

URGE EMPEROR TO KEEP PROMISE TO PEOPLE

Socialists in Prussian Diet Insist that William Provide Modern System of Franchise in State.

(By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.)

Berlin, June 17.—The socialists and other liberal parties in the Prussian diet are protesting against "the long unkept promise of the king."

More than six years ago the emperor, as king of Prussia, declared it to be his desire that a modern franchise system be established in the state, to take the place of the existing three-class, non-secret ballot, which Bismarck once termed "the most iniquitous system in the world."

Since Chancellor von Biilow presented the king's desire to the diet, only one attempt, and that wholly unsuccessful, has been made by the government to carry out the king's wishes.

Minister von Loebell, the new incumbent of the ministry of the interior now announces that he does not propose to present any measure this year for alteration of the voting system.

The liberal parties had hoped after things from von Loebell, who was von Biilow's right-hand man when the latter was chancellor and who was in office when the king's wishes were made known to the diet. The conservatives are greatly pleased with von Loebell's stand, and the more so since they had feared possible liberal tendencies on his part.

The Reichstag has sustained the colonial authorities in their recent dispossessing of the negroes at Tandjala, the chief port of the German colony of Kamerun, in Africa, in order to make a modern sanitary city there.

The protest from the negroes was at first received in Germany sympathetically but Dr. Sohn, secretary for the colonies, made such a convincing defense of the proceedings that the Reichstag passed the appropriations called for by a large majority, only the socialists voting against them.

Another phase of the controversy has arisen. Recently the German colonial government arrested Rudolf Hell, chief of the Dualas, on a charge of treason. It is alleged that he went into the interior to commit an uprising against the Germans with a view to attacking Kamerun to the adjacent English colony of Nigeria. In connection with this affair another arrest has just been made at Berlin. A native, sent by the Dualas to Germany to present their case to the Reichstag, has been sent to prison, and it is understood he will be sent back to Kamerun for trial.

The Reichstag has sustained the colonial authorities in their recent dispossessing of the negroes at Tandjala, the chief port of the German colony of Kamerun, in Africa, in order to make a modern sanitary city there.

The protest from the negroes was at first received in Germany sympathetically but Dr. Sohn, secretary for the colonies, made such a convincing defense of the proceedings that the Reichstag passed the appropriations called for by a large majority, only the socialists voting against them.

Another phase of the controversy has arisen. Recently the German colonial government arrested Rudolf Hell, chief of the Dualas, on a charge of treason.

It is alleged that he went into the interior to commit an uprising against the Germans with a view to attacking Kamerun to the adjacent English colony of Nigeria. In connection with this affair another arrest has just been made at Berlin. A native, sent by the Dualas to Germany to present their case to the Reichstag, has been sent to prison, and it is understood he will be sent back to Kamerun for trial.

Plans are under consideration for three new underground railway systems in Greater Berlin, at an estimated total cost of $60,000,000. One line, from northeast to southwest, touching at the Royal opera house probably will be built in the near future. The other two are not yet decided on the stage of preliminary construction. One would start in the Charlottenburg park under the Brandenburg gate and Unter den Linden, then branch off to the southwest. The other is a proposed extension of the existing Schoneberg underground railway both to the north and south. It would connect the southern suburbs with the northern ones.

Thousands of these cases were undoubtedly due to most trivial causes. Newspaper reports of insult proceedings show cases like the following:

Man fined because, as a policeman in citizen's clothing declared himself to be an officer the culprit replied: "You look like it."

Woman, wife of a striker, imprisoned because, as a group of strikebreakers was passing, she "spat contemptuously."

Striker fined for saying "Few" as strikebreakers were passing.

Police lieutenant fined for saying to a young man in the station house: "Keep still, green youth."

Socialist fined for sending Socialist campaign literature to a Prussian policeman.

Landrat (a local official of great power in Prussia), fined for insulting a young magistrate by declaring that he would not give him testimony to such a youth."

Socialist editor fined for insulting the public authorities by referring to a man—time convicted pander and petty thief as "the crown witness" in addition to the fact that a brother editor had been convicted in another case upon this man's testimony.

Plans are under consideration for three new underground railway systems in Greater Berlin, at an estimated total cost of $60,000,000. One line, from northeast to southwest, touching at the Royal opera house probably will be built in the near future. The other two are not yet decided on the stage of preliminary construction. One would start in the Charlottenburg park under the Brandenburg gate and Unter den Linden, then branch off to the southwest. The other is a proposed extension of the existing Schoneberg underground railway both to the north and south. It would connect the southern suburbs with the northern ones.

Thousands of these cases were undoubtedly due to most trivial causes. Newspaper reports of insult proceedings show cases like the following:

Man fined because, as a policeman in citizen's clothing declared himself to be an officer the culprit replied: "You look like it."

Woman, wife of a striker, imprisoned because, as a group of strikebreakers was passing, she "spat contemptuously."

Striker fined for saying "Few" as strikebreakers were passing.

Police lieutenant fined for saying to a young man in the station house: "Keep still, green youth."

Socialist fined for sending Socialist campaign literature to a Prussian policeman.

Landrat (a local official of great power in Prussia), fined for insulting a young magistrate by declaring that he would not give him testimony to such a youth."

Socialist editor fined for insulting the public authorities by referring to a man—time convicted pander and petty thief as "the crown witness" in addition to the fact that a brother editor had been convicted in another case upon this man's testimony.

Plans are under consideration for three new underground railway systems in Greater Berlin, at an estimated total cost of $60,000,000. One line, from northeast to southwest, touching at the Royal opera house probably will be built in the near future. The other two are not yet decided on the stage of preliminary construction. One would start in the Charlottenburg park under the Brandenburg gate and Unter den Linden, then branch off to the southwest. The other is a proposed extension of the existing Schoneberg underground railway both to the north and south. It would connect the southern suburbs with the northern ones.

Thousands of these cases were undoubtedly due to most trivial causes. Newspaper reports of insult proceedings show cases like the following:

Man fined because, as a policeman in citizen's clothing declared himself to be an officer the culprit replied: "You look like it."

Woman, wife of a striker, imprisoned because, as a group of strikebreakers was passing, she "spat contemptuously."

Striker fined for saying "Few" as strikebreakers were passing.

Police lieutenant fined for saying to a young man in the station house: "Keep still, green youth."

Socialist fined for sending Socialist campaign literature to a Prussian policeman.

Landrat (a local official of great power in Prussia), fined for insulting a young magistrate by declaring that he would not give him testimony to such a youth."

Socialist editor fined for insulting the public authorities by referring to a man—time convicted pander and petty thief as "the crown witness" in addition to the fact that a brother editor had been convicted in another case upon this man's testimony.

Plans are under consideration for three new underground railway systems in Greater Berlin, at an estimated total cost of $60,000,000. One line, from northeast to southwest, touching at the Royal opera house probably will be built in the near future. The other two are not yet decided on the stage of preliminary construction. One would start in the Charlottenburg park under the Brandenburg gate and Unter den Linden, then branch off to the southwest. The other is a proposed extension of the existing Schoneberg underground railway both to the north and south. It would connect the southern suburbs